A Greenback Case.

HAVING been compelled to accept of Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 14, 1864.

NEWS OF THE ELECTION.—From dispatches received up to time of going to press, Lincoln and Johnson appear to have secured the electoral vote of all the Eastern States save Kentucky, Delaware and New Jersey. At the same time New York is only claimed by a small majority, and some doubt, from the returns made, that doubt may exist as to the result in that State. There is nothing more definite from Missouri, which was considered doubtful for awhile, but seems to be claimed now for Lincoln.

It is claimed that Pennsylvania has gone for Lincoln by fifteen thousand majority, and that the Union gains there since the October election foot up twenty-two thousand. If both these statements are correct, that State must have gone Democratic last month by some seven thousand majority. This is either the case, or else there is some mistake in the telegram received. The statement of the vote of thirty-eight regiments of Pennsylvania troops, casting one thousand eight hundred ballots for McClellan and four hundred and forty-nine for Lincoln, must be a mistake. That number of regiments would cast at least ten times the votes mentioned in the dispatch. Simon Cameron claims the State by from fifteen hundred to two thousand votes, while a later dispatch fixes the Union majority at fifteen thousand very positively. One thing is certain: Mr. Lincoln is re-elected, and it is also certain that Congress will be strongly in support of the Administration, with large Union gains. Fernando Wood seems to have been beaten for Congress by Henry J. Raymond, editor of the New York Times and a man of remarkable ability.

One of the most important items of news is from Sherman's department. That General, with a large army, has started for Charleston, as is supposed, after destroying Atlanta and the railroad from thence to Chattanooga.

There is heroism in the few words with which he announces his intention:

"Hood has crossed the Tennessee. Georgia and South Carolina are at my mercy and I shall strike. Do not be anxious about me. I am all right."

THE SALEM MASSACRE—THAT WAS TO BE.—We have met friends from Salem, and received private advices posting us pretty thoroughly relative to the excitement there just after the election last week.

There are a few irresponsible men around Salem who indulged in dark sounding threats, smacking strongly of some conspiracy against the peace.

Such indications as these following took place. A Union man passing an old blatherskite who lives out of town, and whom no party would choose as an exponent of its decency, remarked: "Well, we rather rolled it to you this time," and received for an answer, "We will roll it to you in less than two weeks."

A most injudicious young gentleman, no doubt inspired by whisky, cooly remarked that before long many of the rejoicing Unionists would be around minus a leg or an arm &c.;" while a red headed partisan of Jefferson D[illegible] gave it as his opinion that no guns would be fired in Salem in case of Lincoln's election. Many other such threats were uttered, and always from persons whose passions might induce them, if their courage did not "ooze," to commit crime, and commence violence.

Then there was a report that 150 armed men had been seen drilling at night near a certain brick-yard, which was rather a suspicious vicinity politically.

All these circumstances created an agitation, not so much in the minds of Unionists as of Democrats. The leading Democrats deprecated any violence, and were men who recognized the principle that the majority should rule. They were men of wealth and had something to lose, while other adherents of the party had not, and their apprehensions were aroused from the consciousness that any outbreak of secessia in Marion county would raise a spirit that might retaliate with vengeance on them and theirs. They had "sown the wind" but they were not prepared to "reap the whirlwind," and on their application with the signature of a few Union men, the Mayor called the meeting mentioned in our dispatches. The meeting resulted in good, at least in this, that decent men of all parties felt they had a common interest in preserving peace. Such citizens as J. S. Smith, A Bush, B. Haydon and others expressed themselves as opposed to ruffianism or threats, and the editor of the Arena from the commencement cursed some of his regular readers unstintedly for their conduct.

There is not much danger to our Salem friends, we think, and we think the most irrepressible enemies of the peace will hesitate before commencing war. But we would advise them to watch that red headed broom ranger, lest he runs his fiery locks into somebody's hay stack and sets the world afire. These 150 rangers in midnight drill we look upon as a myth; the fool-killer did not certainly leave that number in Marion county on his last tour up the valley.

CAPT. TICHENOR.—A gentleman who came up in the steamer, says he met Capt. Tichenor at San Francisco. The Captain had just been released from Alcatraz, where he had been in confinement 16 days, and complained severely that he had been confined without any reason assigned therefor, and released without examination or explanation.

We understand that Tichenor was arrested for opposing and resisting the military authorities at or near Port Orford.

UMATILLA CITY. At the late election, the following persons were chosen city officials: Mayor, Z. F. Moody; Aldermen, R. M. French, [illegible] Law, M. E. Fulsom, Fred. Stade, William H. Spencer; Treasurer, Jesse Fading; Marshal, Robert Stanley; Recorder, R. H. [illegible]. For city charter—Yes, 106; no, 51; majority, 55. Total number of votes cast, 158. The Union ticket was elected throughout.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF LINN COUNTY.—J. [illegible]ley, 822; H. N. George, 821; George L. Woods, 823; Benjamin Hayden, 935; A. E. Wait, 934; S. F. Chadwick, 935. Democratic majority, 111. Whole vote, 1,758.

The Richest Thing Out!

From the Walla Walla Statesman of October 21st, 1864. With emendations added.

LETTER FROM HON. GEO. E. COLE. We extract the following from a private letter from Hon. George E. Cole, dated Fulton, New York, Aug. 14, 1864:

The Hon. George, under the divine afflatus, thus speaketh of the nomination of the great Grave Digger, and the certainty of his triumphant election:

Before this reaches you, the Chicago Convention will have nominated the next President, and you will have heard of it by telegraph. I say President, as a nomination, with a good platform, is equivalent to an election. McClellan is far ahead of all competition for the nomination, and the signs of the times indicate that he will be triumphantly elected.

He estimateth majorities, including the Five Points in New York City, and many States:

It is estimated that New York city will give him from fifty thousand to sixty thousand majority, and the majority in the State cannot be less than that number, while Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana, Illinois, Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, and Missouri, are counted upon as certain to go for him, which will be 127 of the electoral vote—116 being necessary for a choice. Besides, Wisconsin, Michigan, New Hampshire, Connecticut, and Maine, are likely to go for him as Lincoln is only conceded Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, California and Oregon, casting only 47 votes. Even California is given up by all.

The reasons which this patriot thinketh will bring about the election of the Vallandigham candidate are thus stated:

No one man in ten liable to the draft will vote for a continuance of the war for the abolition of slavery, and I have not found any who now intend to. Should any one other than McClellan be nominated by the Chicago Convention, the army vote might beat him, but Little Mac is as popular with the soldiers as ever.

What the Hon. Delegate hath seen and heard:

Have not seen a veteran volunteer—and I have met and conversed with a great many—who is not a McClellan man, regardless of politics. They all think him the greatest General we have had, and the good care he took of his men endeared him to all of them.

In this it appeareth that the "veteran volunteers" have drawn the wool over the eyes of the people; but he hath general glimmers that "the Republican [Union] party intend to let the election go by default:"

It is also generally believed that a large portion of the leaders of the Republican party intend letting the election go by default, as they have lost all confidence in Lincoln's ability to carry the war through successfully should he be re-elected, and they would rather see him defeated than to have it fail in their hands. This undoubtedly will have a great effect.

When Lincoln was nominated, it was generally conceded that if Grant should take Richmond and Sherman Atlanta, nothing could prevent his election. Both of these events could not save him now, and the former seems not likely to occur.

He raiseth the whites of his eyes, and pronounceth: "nothing can save Lincoln now!" and in his great benignity towards "Lincoln and his supporters," telleth them what "drove the nail in his coffin:"

Lincoln has few hearty supporters among the people here, while numbers are leaving him daily. His foolish "To whom it may concern" drove the nail in his coffin.

He turneth his attention to Oregon, and discourseth wisely and learnedly. He concludeth that this fall Oregon will go for Lincoln:

From the result of the election in Oregon, there seems to be no hope for Oregon going anything but Republican this fall.

He remarketh "a little taste" of the draft will do away with the patriotism of our people:

A little taste of the draft might do the people good, and they will certainly get it next year, if Lincoln is re-elected, for this "500,000" will use up all the material here, and the Pacific coast will have to furnish its quota next year.

If there be a draft, some of his own party will get "a little taste of it," which, if it does them no good, may gratify others. He closeth his epistle to the gudgeon that swallowed it, with the prediction, which is the only one in his remarkable production likely to prove true, that this is the last year of the war!

But there seems to be no prospect of that, for this is the last year of the war and the reign of Mr. Lincoln.

He closeth this chapter of his predictions—which he expecteth will carry his fame down to immortality—with his august name, thus:

Yours, truly,
GEO. E. COLE,
Delegate to Congress from Washington Territory,
United States of America.

MR. CORNISH furnishes us with the following letter to make an item from, which we publish entire, as the most effectual way of giving the people on the line information of the coming of Mr. Mingins:

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7, 1864.

DEAR SIR—Rev. M. Mingins, of the U. S. Christian Commission, is now on his way to Oregon, and will probably arrive in Portland in from two to three weeks. I cannot tell exactly when, as he goes overland, and makes addresses at the principal towns on the way. He is one of the most thrilling speakers you ever listened to, and I hope you will give him good audiences when he speaks. It would be as well to circulate it as widely as possible, perhaps, through the newspapers. If you treat him as kindly as you did Dr. Patterson, you will do well. Dr. P. will never forget your kindness. Hoping he may awaken in your generous hearts a new interest in behalf of our suffering soldiers.

I remain, yours truly;
JAS. B. ROBERTS,
President P. C. C.

UMATILLA CITY, Oregon, Nov. 9th, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The election passed off quietly yesterday and we have redeemed this precinct. The vote stands as follows:

Lincoln Electors—Geo. L. Woods, 127; H. N. George, 127; J. F. Gazley, 127.

ENTERPRISE.—The Bulletin says: Freeport, 45 miles below Sacramento, is becoming quite a shipping point, large quantities of cobble and granite having been shipped down; while a considerable amount of assorted merchandise and grain, by steamers and sailing vessels, has gone into the interior over the Freeport Railroad.

MR. J. C. O'NEILL, of Salem, just arrived in the Brother Jonathan, says that the sea was rough the whole passage, with a strong head wind, and there was a rough time crossing the Columbia river bar. As we do not often receive abstracts from the log books of the O. S. N. Co.'s steamers, [illegible] always acceptable.

[illegible] A Mr. Benjamin [illegible] Westfall, of Linn County, has been brought [illegible] to the Insane Asylum [illegible] Judge of that county.

CLATSOP COUNTY.—We learn that in this county the vote stood—for Lincoln, 138; for McClellan, 76; total votes cast, 181.

GOOD FOR OHIO.—Generals Grant, Sherman, Rosecrans, McPherson, Sheridan, Kautz, Gerrard, Weitzel, Crook, and Gilmore, were all born in Ohio.

By Overland Telegraph,

STARTLING NEWS FROM SHERMAN

HE MARCHES FOR CHARLESTON.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 9.—One hundred and thirty-two towns give Lincoln 25,749; McClellan 23,687.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 9.—Returns from all towns in the State but one give Lincoln 5,011 majority. The soldiers' vote will increase it.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 9.—Lincoln's majority in all but thirteen towns is 2,004.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10.—The Gazette of this morning publishes the following, received from New York last night: We think the State safe for Lincoln. Fernando Wood and Jim Brooks are certainly defeated for Congress. We gain three Congressmen in this city and seven in the State. A second dispatch says: We have now no doubt of the State by 5,000 to 7,000 majority for Lincoln. Seymour runs behind his ticket considerably. It is feared that Jim Brooks is chosen Congressman. But official returns must decide. The Tribune claims that the Union party have carried the State; the World claims it for McClellan.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Tabor, Democrat, is elected in the 7th Congressional district; Brandreth and Sharfield in the 10th and 11th districts, Hubbell and Goodyear, in the 12th and 14th districts. The present Congressional delegation stands 6 Union and 16 Democrats.

ALBANY, Nov. 9.—The Evening Journal claims the State by 5,000 majority. Returns, it says, are very scattering and do not justify a positive estimate. The Argus claims that the Democratic ticket is elected in the State.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 9.—New Jersey gives McClellan 5,500 majority.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—This city gives 1,290 majority for Lincoln. The State has undoubtedly gone for Lincoln by considerable majority. The Unionists have a majority in the House; the Senate doubtful. The Union majority in the State is 7,000.

WILMINGTON, Del. 9.—McClellan carries the State by 450 majority.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 9.—The news from Pennsylvania is to the effect that the State has given 10,001 majority for Lincoln without the soldiers' vote.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—The Bulletin estimates the Union majority in the State at from 10,000 to 15,000 on the home vote.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 9.—Lincoln's majority in Allegheny county is 9,000. Armstrong county 20 Union majority.

CAIRO, Nov. 10.—Everything passed off quietly. Cairo City gives McClellan 354 majority; Marion County 100 majority for McClellan; Centralia 300 Union majority; Williamson county a small Union majority; Union county 450 majority for McClellan; Massac county 465 Union majority.

ROCK ISLAND, Nov. 10.—This county gives 600 Union majority; Mercer 500.

WHEELING, Va., Nov. 8.—Phelps, (Union) is elected in the Third District.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 9.—Returns indicate an increased Union majority over October of about 10,000 to 15,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Tribune claims all New England, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New York, Missouri, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and Kansas for Lincoln, giving a total of 191 electoral votes, independent of the Pacific coast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The following was received by the City of Baltimore from Hong Kong with advices to Sept. 10:

A fleet of three ships mounting 184 guns, three French ships, five Dutch ships are nearly ready to leave for Japan. A merchant ship had been chartered to carry the United States flag in the action by the American Minister, in order to be represented. The object is to force the opening of the inland sea according to the treaty.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Herald's Fortress Monroe dispatch says the pirate Tallahasse was fired into by five ships at one time, as she ran into Wilmington. Five fast vessels are in pursuit of her.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A statement that a loan of sixty millions or one hundred millions in bonds, bearing interest is to be made, is without foundation. It is understood that a loan receivable partly in certificates of seven and three tenths currency interest is under consideration, and is the only loan thought of for the present.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Herald's army of the Potomac dispatch reports that the rebels attacked our extreme left on the forenoon of the 6th, but were quickly sent whirling back within their own lines.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10.—A dispatch received at Cincinnati yesterday, from New York, gives the following intelligence: The Commercial Advertiser's Washington dispatch says that General McClellan's resignation as Major-General in the U. S. army was received at the War Department on Tuesday, Nov. 8th.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 8.—Reports from Johnsonville, Tenn., represent Forrest as retreating in the direction of Corinth.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 9.—Major-General Canby and Brigadier-General Davidson came from New Orleans to the mouth of White river, on the steamer Magenta, which arrived at Cairo yesterday, destined for Little Rock. General Harrison, recently at Little Rock on a tour of inspection, made an unfavorable report as to the condition of affairs in Arkansas. The visit of General Canby in person is strongly indicative of the supercedure of Gen. Steele.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 9.—Officers from Chattanooga report that Sherman returned to Atlanta last week with five corps of his army, leaving the Second Corps in Tennessee under Thomas to watch Hood. He destroyed the railroad from Chattanooga to Atlanta, and after sending them to Chattanooga, Atlanta was burned. Sherman is now marching directly for Charleston.

MISSOURI.—Authentic intelligence of a startling nature has been received from Sherman's department. He returned to Atlanta last week from the pursuit of Hood with five corps of his army, leaving Thomas with the Second Corps to watch and attend to the rebels' movement. He destroyed the railroad from Chattanooga to Atlanta. Sherman has set fire to Atlanta, completely destroying the place and is marching for Charleston. Just previous to entering upon the [illegible] he wrote as follows: Hood has crossed the Tennessee, and Georgia and South Carolina are at my mercy and I shall strike. Do not be anxious about me. I am all right.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Congressional delegation of this city stands two Union, two War [illegible] regular Democrats. Brooks majority is 100. Raymond's 384; Darling's 1,000.

BUFFALO, Nov. 10.—The Democracy still claim New York, but don't appear very strong in their figures. The Republicans claim the State from six to nine thousand majority.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 10.—Complete returns give 5,061 for Lincoln, exclusive of the soldiers' vote, in Rhode Island.

Last Night's Dispatches.

CAIRO (via St. Joseph), Nov. 11.—Kuykendall, Union candidate, elected to Congress from the 13th district.

Paducah, Columbus, Hickman and Clinton in Kentucky, give Union majorities. Mayfield is reported to have given a small Democratic majority. Gen. A. J. Smith's command is at Paducah. It is reported that Gen. Meredith is given the command in the State of Kentucky.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A special dispatch to the Commercial says there is no news of importance. All quiet with Grant's army to-night, but there is considerable speculation respecting reports of Sherman's movements. Many are disposed to [illegible] story of his abandonment of Atlanta, marching towards Charleston. Savannah letters [illegible] of his army, recently received, make [illegible] something startling before [illegible]. It is thought this event referred to arrangements for the release, by exchange, of 10,000 prisoners had been concluded, and but few days would be required to fully execute them.

The Post says that gunboats built here for the Japanese government were detained under protest from the British Minister, owing to impending hostilities growing out of the demands of the Governments of the United States, England, France, and Holland, for opening the Japanese inland sea, where the allied fleet has before this gone to force an opening.

The Post contradicts a statement about a misunderstanding between Butler and Dix.

A late Savannah paper chronicles a fire at Charleston, which destroyed a large number of mechanical shops and tools. A large stock of small arms and cannon was also destroyed.

A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury regards the expressions of Stephens, Boyce and others as intimating a surrender, have fallen upon reflecting minds with a shock electrical as lightning.

The Macon Confederacy regards the discussion of peace inviolate on the part of the people of the Confederacy.

The anticipated attack on Wilmington is discussed by the papers, who claim the defenses very strong, but regarded the situation with anxiety.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, Nov. 9.—A flag of truce, asked by the enemy, was granted yesterday morning to bury those killed on Saturday in their attack on our rear and centre. The enemy acknowledge a loss of 200 killed and wounded. The election yesterday throughout our army passed off very quietly. Thirty-eight Pennsylvania regiments give McClellan 1,841; Lincoln, 449. [This is evidently a mistake, as 38 regiments would poll at least 25,000 votes.]

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—Nothing more definite here to-night as to the result of the election in this State. The Democrats claim the State by a few hundred, while the Unionists insist that they have carried it by at least 5,000.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 10.—The Union majority in Pennsylvania will be from 1,000 to 2,000 without the soldiers' vote.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Gen. Wright, just elected to Congress by the Democrats for the 5th district, died this morning. The World says New York and Pennsylvania have both gone Republican. Indications are that Seymour is defeated. Fenton appears to have run ahead of Lincoln in several counties.

Thus far McClellan appears to have carried only three States; New Jersey, Delaware and Kentucky.

Next Congress is overwhelmingly Republican. The Congressional delegation from the States yet to elect members, standing the same as present, there will be three more than two-thirds majority on joint ballot.

The New York Legislature will be Republican by 37 majority.

New York has gone for the Republican party by 7,000 majority; Pennsylvania, 15,000. Republican gain since October, as far as absolutely known, is about 22,000.

The Albany Atlas and Argus still insist that there is 12,000 or 15,000 majority in New York for McClellan.

The World says that its has authentic information, that rebel emissaries in Canada have laid before the Provisional Government of the purported basis of the secret treaty between the Richmond authorities and the Emperor Maximilian. The agreement included the terms of alliance offensive and defensive between Mexico and the Confederacy was considered compatible with a perfect consent of the Emperor of France. Material aid was to be afforded by his giving effect to the covenant at the proper moment.

The World's New Orleans letter of 29th October says General Buckner, commanding the Confederate forces in Western Louisiana, surprised the garrison at Morganzia on the 26th October, and held the place several hours. He captured 1,900 prisoners, and carried off all war material.

TORONTO, Nov. 10.—Prominent men from the Northern States are here, urging Canadian energetic co-operation with the Union authorities to preserve the peace of the frontier. Efficient measures on the part of the Canadian Government have been taken.

MONTREAL, Nov. 9.—The examination of witnesses in the St. Alban's raiders case progresses slowly. It is said no appeal can be made to an English Court. An act of the British Parliament limits writs to the United Kingdom.

OMAHA, Nov. 10, 1 p. m.—There have been very heavy storms between here and Chicago for several days. The line is torn down in many places. The above dispatches were transmitted via St. Joseph, Missouri.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The steamer Sierra Nevada arrived this morning.

OREGON ELECTION RETURNS.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 12.—The mail from Kerbyville arrived to-night. Josephine county goes for McClellan by 30 to 35 majority.

The vote of Fort Klamath, Wasco county, was 50 for Lincoln and none for McClellan. Returns have been sent to the Dalles down the DesChutes.

MAGNIFICENT CHRISTMAS OR NEW YEAR'S GIFT.—As the season approaches for gentlemen to select presents for those in whom they feel sufficient interest to compliment in this appropriate way, we take the liberty to-day of making a suggestion, [illegible] to give the Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine the preference over all other articles, either of fancy or utility. Our reasons for giving this preference to the Grover & Baker Machine are more numerous than we have space this morning to express. In the first place, it is more ornate, as an article of furniture, than any other machine in use; then, again, it is the only machine extant which every intelligent lady can operate from the start without a tedious course of instruction; the stitch for which it is celebrated is the strongest, most neat-looking, and durable; it is operated with such a degree of ease that we have, ourselves, seen a little child of four years run it in heavy sewing for hours without any apparent labor; it is the only machine in the world that executes fine embroidery; and, if there was any other proof needed to place the Grover & Baker instrument in advance of all others, we surely have it in the fact that from the commencement of its existence to the present time it has, without one single exception, taken the highest premium wherever it has been exhibited publicly for competition.—Philadelphia Press.

CINCINNATI, June 8, 1861. Messrs. J. L. Scovill & Co.—Gentlemen: I feel it a duty I owe to [illegible] to let them know the value of your Dr. William Hall's Balsam for curing of Croup. My little girl, seven years old, had an attack of Croup, and came very near dying. I gave her Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which [illegible] in a very short time. We have used in cases of bad coughs, with the happiest effect. Benjamin Pitkin, [illegible] street, between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by Druggists everywhere. REDINGTON & CO., [illegible] Agents for the Pacific Coast, 416 and 418 Front st., San Francisco.

☞ Beware of all other preparations of the same name. Each bottle of the genuine bears the signature of "J. L. Scovill & Co.," Baker & Co.," Cincinnati. Take none other. Price One Dollar per bottle.

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we assert with confidence that there is no better remedy than SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP. Give it a trial.

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. REDINGTON & CO., Agents, 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco.

There are twenty-seven State causes, in addition to the above, appearing upon the docket for trial, which makes the term a very important one.

Arrival of the Brother Jonathan.—The steamship Brother Jonathan, S. J. DeWolf Commander, left San Francisco, November 9th, for Portland and Victoria, arriving at the mouth of the Willamette Saturday night, and her freight and passengers were brought up to the city yesterday. The following are passengers:

J C Atkinson, T T Colins, B Hoel, Frank Davis, Wm T Shanahan and wife, Mrs Mary T Bryan, Miss Saxer, Miss Wilson, Mrs M C F Adams and 2 children, Wm Atkinson, Mrs Jacoby, B R Hughes, D W Cox, J C Bell, Mrs Bagg, Mrs Ell Miller, Mrs Nordyke, R H Bacon, W H Bennett, F J Currier, H Wasserman, S Baum, W McMillan, S H Jenned and wife, H Grabenheim, Miss Adelaide Phillips, Mrs Emerson, Mrs Kilburn, Miss R Sipe, Mrs Chatfield, Max Mark, G E Sipe, Mrs Truax, servt and 2 children, S Ellsworth, wife and child, F G Randall and wife, Mrs Julia Dean Hayne, Miss M Bennett, Mrs McCarty and 2 children, Mrs Acosta, John Swave and wife, Mrs Balenschwaler, J W Talbot, wife and child, S Myers, C H Langworthy, A G Talbot, Mrs G B Condon and 3 children, F Lewis, J S Peck, H Beyer, Mrs C Winegapt and 3 children, Mrs R S Wellsen, W C Armstrong, Geo W Stevenson, Mrs Josephine Chepline, Miss Rowena Chepline, J A Lord, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Messenger, and 48 others.

BENTON, Purser.

Almost a Tragedy.—It was 10½ o'clock last evening, and every man connected with the Oregonian was busily helping to put the last touch to the interesting sheet that now captivates your attention, when there came from the hall, at the office door, a rushing bellow, that seemed equal to the voice of several calves of the Bashan species at once. In the other room the engine was running at full speed, printing the outside of the daily; and above the whirr and clatter of the engine, the hiss of the steam guage, or the rush and roll of the big cylinder that manufactures newspapers faster than one can think, came the full voiced roar from without.

Some one looked forth, and horror! there at our door, upon the entry floor, lay a poor human wel tering in his gore, and all the while indulging in that obstreperous roar. He was raised up, and carefully brought under the gas lights, where we ascertained that he was drunk; that somebody had hit him in the head; that it happened in a hurdy-gurdy dance house; that he was not hurt much, and that his magnificent bellows lungs belonged to an ass. So we showed him the door again, and advised him to go down stairs before somebody kicked him down.

Arrival of the Bark Almatia.—The bark Almatia, Capt Miller, arrived at her wharf in this city last evening, in tow of the steamer John H. Couch. The Almatia left San Francisco on the 27th of October; arrived at Columbia river seven days' passage, but was prevented from crossing the bar in consequence of heavy sea and severe gales, laying off seven days. Crossed the bar on the 11th. The first part of the passage had moderate breezes from N. W., the latter part steady breezes from S. E. While off the Bar spoke a schooner bound to Shoalwater Bay 12 days out from San Francisco. The Almatia brings a full cargo of assorted merchandise for this city.

Recorder's Court.—His Hon. Judge McCoy had quite a respectable audience on Saturday. Those nervous individuals who had been stimulating rather too freely, answering to the names of Charles Pryor and Patrick McDonald were found guilty and the former met his favor in the sum of $10 and costs, the latter $5 and costs. Mr. James Costello, was arraigned for firing a pistol in his saloon, but was dismissed, as the act was only intended to attract the attention of the Police, in an emergency.

The Cambridge.—We are disappointed to learn that this vessel, destined for Honolulu, was still at the mouth of the Columbia river on Saturday, waiting a favorable breeze to put to sea. One very much needed improvement for our commerce is a suitable line of tug boats, and until we can get them we shall be constantly sustaining the most provoking sacrifices, not only in crossing the Bar, but in ascending and descending the rivers.

Personal.—We miss the familiar face of Capt. A. B. Richardson, who has retired from the command of our favorite craft, the bark Domitia, but we recognise instead our friend Miller, former Chief Officer. If the elder Captains will persist in getting rich and retiring to their homes on shore it is gratifying to have the rotation fall upon the deserved ones, as it does in this case and that of the industry, mentioned a few days since.

Remains of Rev. T. B. Sanderson.—The steamer John H. Couch brought the remains of Rev T. B. Sanderson to this city on Saturday night, from Astoria. Mr. S. had been induced by his friends to visit the Sandwich Islands for the benefit of his health, which was declining rapidly, but before embarking on the Cambridge died at Astoria.

Commercial.—The bark Industry, S. D. Lewis Master, sailed for San Francisco on Saturday with a full cargo of 500 tons assorted produce from this place. She was detained at the mouth of the Willamette, and the steamer John H. Couch will take her in tow for Astoria this morning.

The Foot Race.—The foot race on Saturday, between Buchtel and Lewis, was won by the former in accordance with the rules of the contest. Mr. B. [illegible] was allowed ten feet at the outcome, but did not require the full amount into about six feet.

Sale of Real Estate.—The auction sale of a portion of the Lownsdale estate in this city came off on Saturday last, and was conducted by Mr. A. B. Richardson, our popular and experienced Auctioneer. The sale was undoubtedly the best [illegible] real estate auction sale that has ever been attended upon this coast. Mr. Richardson prefaced the work by drawing parallel cases of similar transactions in former times of San Francisco and his remarks were well appreciated by his numerous hearers. The rise and progress of this State, the future prosperity of Portland, the great increase that would certainly follow the prices to be paid at that sale, were all treated upon in a candid manner, and the bidding commenced, resulting in sales as follows:

[illegible]	330	J. M. Rohue
[illegible]	625	do
North half [illegible]	750	do
[illegible]	1150	do
South half [illegible]

North E do	720	H W Corbett.

Block [illegible]	2000	Wiberg & Co.
[illegible]	500	J. Fading.
[illegible]	500	G H Williams.
[illegible] 271	500	do
[illegible] 272	1225	do
Lots [illegible] block 234	50	A B Richardson.

At the close of the sale, the crowd feeling somewhat [illegible] inclined—the lucky ones no doubt wishing to have their bargains "wet," and those less fortunate desiring to recover something for a lack of their crowning efforts—it was proposed by one that Mr. Richardson "stand treat," which proposition met with a second, and Mr. R., acting as President, "put the question" in regular parliamentary style, when it was decided in the affirmative, and they adjourned to the Liberty, where all who desired to, participated in refreshment for the inner man, and thus ended a very important day's work in real estate dealings.

Why Don't They Come Up?—We are asked on nearly every corner in reference to the steamships—Why don't they come up to the city? The only answer we are able to make is: Simply because they don't want to. It cannot be from any lack of water. The river is full two feet higher now than one week ago, and there are very full tides at the present time, so that at the shoalest place near the mouth of this river there must be sufficient for boat any steamship on the line. It is a matter our citizens all feel a deep interest in, and we shall be glad to obtain any light upon the subject. If we are compelled to pay from $4,000 to $5,000 per month for drayage in winter as well as fall, the sooner it can be understood the better it will be for us. Perhaps a little concert of action amongst our merchants would tend to veto the proceeding.

Theatrical.—Miss Ince appears to-night in Leah, and the full houses of the last week induce us to hope there will be a good turn out. Quite a full house was in attendance Saturday evening despite the heavy rain, and Ion was greeted the second time with much applause. The afterpiece was excellent, and Mrs. Getzler as good as usual. Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne arrived by the steamer yesterday and will soon appear at the Willamette in some of her favorite parts.

Accident.—A Mr. Criswell, on Saturday last, was thrown from his spiking horse, near the tannery, dislocating his arm at the elbow. It was, however, easily returned to its place by Dr. Watkins.

For Salem and Albany.—The P. T. Co. will dispatch a steamer for Salem this morning from Canemah, connecting with the steamer Rival on her regular trip from this place, and if the stage of water permits, the boat will proceed as far as Albany.

The gold brought down by Mr. Grenzebach was from float rock of the Oro Fino ledge, which was crushed at the Ainsworth mill in Owyhee, and not at Mincar's, as stated in the Mountaineer.

We acknowledge the courtesies of Wells, Fargo & Co. in furnishing us full files of late San Francisco papers, and for other favors conferred.

REVOLUTION IN MAZATLAN —By the steamer John L. Stephens which arrived on Wednesday we learn that there had been a revolution in the city of Mazatlan. The partisans of Maximilian rose in revolt and took possession of the city. [illegible] had continued for a month previous to the sailing of the steamer and 110 persons had been killed in the streets. Governor M[illegible] had been cut away and Colonel Rosales an Imperialist had taken his place.—[illegible]

SUDDEN DEATH.—[illegible] formerly a citizen of this city [illegible] died suddenly at [illegible] on last Tuesday night. He had been unusually lively through the afternoon, and [illegible] and on his return to the [illegible] dizzy. In a few moments after [illegible] and was carried [illegible] 12 o'clock. He leaves a wife [illegible]. He is said to have died of apoplexy.—[illegible]

SAVED FOR SEED.—An Atlanta correspondent of the Mobile Register states a fact which shows how destructive the war has been on the rebels. He says:

I brought about thirty-five men with me from Baldwin county. Of these only one is left (a rank Sutton), and I have given him a [illegible] to keep the Yankees from killing him. I will save him for seed.

GETTING USED TO THE YANKS.—A soldier writing from Atlanta says:

The young ladies don't seem at all afraid of the Yankees, for they may be seen promenading the streets, well dressed and many of them refined and pretty. I noticed a bevy of young misses dancing on the grass behind a very fine residence to the lively airs played by Gen. Slocum's band. They seemed to have quite forgotten the fearful carnage of the past month.

THOS. WOLFINGER, of Ophir Hill, Nevada county, while returning to his home on Tuesday night, made a misstep and fell into a shaft on the [illegible] Vista road. He fell a distance of over thirty feet and cut his head in a dreadful manner, broke his collar-bone and received severe internal injuries.—Marysville Appeal.
